

THS ALL-SCHOOL REUNION

SATURDAY, JULY 29, 2017

The Texico class of 1967 will be following tradition as they host the All-School Reunion this year on Saturday, July 29, 2017 at the school cafeteria. The cafeteria is located in the 500 block of North Griffin Street, east of the elementary school and adjacent to the playground. Please be aware that regular tables and chairs will be set up. You will not be seated on cafeteria benches! The evening agenda is as follows:

A tour of the school facilities will start at 4:00 p.m. MST

A time of visiting in the cafeteria with graduates from other classes

The meal will be served at 6:00 MST p.m. catered by River Smith's

The annual Border Town Days festivities will also be going on this weekend with a parade starting in Texico at 10:00 MST, and progressing to the park in Farwell where you may enjoy food, arts and crafts, entertainment, and visiting with friends. The Class of 1967 will be riding in the parade and then will gather at a reserved table at the southwest corner of the park following the parade. Please bring your own lawn chair/s.

The meal charge will be $22.50 per person which includes your meal, tax, gratuity, and expenses involved with hosting this reunion. Although the mailing list is substantial, we realize it is impossible to reach every THS graduate. If you know of someone who did not receive this letter, please let them know they can go to the school website (texicoschools.com) and download a copy of this letter or contact Les Harrelson at 575-749-9832, to have one emailed.

We would like to add a special note of encouragement for the Classes of "1968 & 1969" to attend as they will be in charge of hosting the All-School Reunion in 2018 and 2019. Attending is very beneficial in providing an idea of what will be expected of your class as a host.
